INFORMATION CONCERNING PATENTS

others information contained in my application while it is pending?

A. No. All patent applications are maintained in the strictest secrecy until the patent is issued. After the patent is issued, however, the Office file containing the application and all correspondence leading up to issuance of the patent is made available in the Files Information Room for inspection by anyone and copies of these files may be purchased from the Office.

3. Q. May I write to the Patent and Trademark Office directly about my application after it is filed?

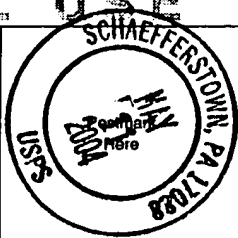

A. The Office will answer an applicant's inquiries as to the status of the application, and inform you whether your application has been rejected, allowed, or is awaiting action. However, if you have a patent attorney or agent of record in the application file the Office will not correspond with both you and the attorney/agent concerning the merits of your application. All comments concerning your application should be forwarded through your attorney or agent.

May 18, 2004

Frank Fusco
PO Box 193
Schaefferstown PA 17088

Dear Mr. Fusco:

Your letter, dated May 11, 2004, addressed to Postal Service Headquarters has been referred to this office for investigation and response.

We share your concern about improperly completed or incomplete return receipts. I assure you that most of the thousands of return receipts we handle each day are completed properly and returned promptly. Nevertheless, we recognize that the relatively few which are mishandled represent a great inconvenience to our customers and we are working to eliminate this problem.

Occasionally, a return receipt becomes detached from the accompanying letter during mail handling and transportation or upon acceptance it simply is not properly annotated and returned back to the mailstream. It appears this may have been the case with your return receipt for Certified # 7002 3150 0000 6297 1500 since it was returned to you unsigned.

Your subsequent request via PS Form 3811-A also did not provide complete delivery information as the signature was missing. I have been in contact with the Alexandria VA Post Office and found out that, inadvertently, the recipient did not complete all the required information on the delivery form on April 29, 2004 when the accountable mail was delivered to the Patent Office at PO Box 1450. I can assure you, however, your certified article was delivered to the correct address.

However, because of this error, as we have no official signature for this article, you can take your certified receipt, along with this letter, to your local Post Office for a refund for service not provided.

I apologize for the failing to provide the service you purchased and for the inconvenience this matter may have caused you.

Sincerely,

for John Bowen
